Trusting God

Proverbs 3:5-10

Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

(Verses 5 & 6)

Trusting God—do we really trust Him? I know the right response would be a quick yes from a Religionist interest, but I am asking from a relationship interest—do we really trust in the LORD? Beyond the trust that we exhibit in Him for the rising and setting of the sun, and even in Him making a way out of no way, do we really trust Him?

Do we really trust Him with our daily lives? The things He has blessed us with, to be a blessing? Or, are we hoarding blessings, afraid to let go thinking that God is not able to replenish what He has given. Read 2 Kings 4:1-7 in your quiet time.

Proverbs 3:5-10 tell us to trust in the LORD and to lean not on our own understanding. Verse 9 tells us to honor the LORD with our substance and with the first fruits of all our increase. When we implement this, and we trust in God, verse 10, tells us we shall have all that we need. Trusting in God really works.
